Funny, hilarious picture book that stirs your imagination

It is time to go back home, but Pig doesn't have an umbrella. But there are many ways not to get wet! You can run under the rain for only 5 seconds, or pick a fat black cloud and squeeze the rain out of it, or get a big fat leaf like your umbrella even frogs would follow it.

The author worked it hoping everyone has an own umbrella in mind so that you can avoid when meeting any difficulties.
