A Funny story about a boy who wants to have a beard!

Here is a boy who wants a beard as soon as he becomes an adult. His grandpa is bald-headed but has a beard that looks like salt and pepper sprinkled on his face, and his uncle also has a black and lush beard. Only his dad doesn't have anything, just a soft skin on his chin, which looks missing.

What kind of beard would look good on him? A beard like the one on a sorcerer? A goatee? A beard like the one on a villain from the movies? The boy starts to observe his dad's beard like how fast it grows, what kind of shape it can be.
