This book is a record of one year of ordinary farmer couples.

You can follow an old couple grandma Ok-hee whose a special ability to cook anything with vegetables from her farmland and grandpa Young-bae who is always sweet to grandma. Don't forget to find Dong-gu, the dog that the couple adopted when young.

This book is a picture book-documentary using texts and illustrations to describe the four seasons in the field and the countryside. Not only the growth of plants in the field amazes readers, but it is also heart-warming to see the lives of ordinary people throughout the year.
