- Featuring Yoon`s rhyming verse and gorgeous illustrations, this delightful picture book is about being true to yourself and daring to be different!
- Presenting a repeated sentence “Lovely, the way you are”, this charming book is perfect for reading aloud at bed time or any time that extra heart-warming words are in order!

This book presents different packs of animals in each page. But, if you look closely, you can spot one animal from each pack with a slightly different appearance – a pig with a relatively pointy nose and a baby giraffe with a relatively short neck from their own pack. Although with somewhat different appearance, no one is depressed nor feels isolated – they are all happy as they are!

This book teaches the young readers to become confident and respect others' differences. Children will read through sharks with crooked fins that swim bravely through the waves and butterflies with mismatched wings that dance gracefully through the air.
