

It's Okay

Sold to Taiwan

'Ants are small, snakes are footless, and ostriches cannot. But it's all rights. We do well what others cannot do.' This book helps children to understand healthy life and to have self-confidence.

Me too, Me too

Sold to Taiwan

Running like a zebra or singing merrily like a bird - This book features babies imitating whatever they see and insist on doing things on their own. Imitating and performing independent activities are critical in baby's development.

Did I Really?

Sold to Taiwan, Thailand

This is a story which a mom tells her daughter what she was like when she was a baby. As the mother compares her daughter to different animals, the girl gets excited knowing about herself when she was a baby.

Do You Want To Be My Friend?

Sold to Taiwan

This child wants to be a friend saying a big hello, giving a present, sharing snacks, reading books together. The thought-provoking book to help children understand the idea of being a good friend.

When I See You

Sold to China, Taiwan

A fox lost his home in a tree-cut forest, a flying butterfly is covered in smoke, and a sea lion is unable to swim because of a piece of plastic wrapped around him. The child sympathizes with the pain of animals, trying to comfort and encourage them.

Sky Child & Earth Child

A child in this story loves everything surrounded by. The author/illustrator quoted features of Chinese characters so that children can learn the meaning with fascinating pictures. The book covers: 天(sky), 日(sun), 月(moon), 星(star), 雲(cloud), 地(ground), 山(mountain), 水(water), 木(tree), 化(flower), 父(dad), and 母(mum).

One Big Egg

Sold to China

A picture book which encourages young children to learn numbers 0-10. From an egg to various animals, with counting numbers, children also can learn every living creature's life is precious.

