By the corner of the road, inside a small bakery, a bread ghost is living there only minding his own business inside of a loaf of bread.

Having only the essential things he needs to live, his everyday life is so quiet and peaceful until a cat appears and starts interfering into his housework such as disrupting the dining table, making a mess inside the bakery. The bread ghost feels irritated, angry, and just wants to be left alone again, just back to the time he had before the cat interrupted his life. But will he be happy when the naughty cat disappears?

A funny, heart-warming picture book about letting a bit of your area go, being together, and consideration for others.

Author Biography

Yunji lives with her husband and Na Ong, Eun Gom, and Leo.

She met Na Ong, Eun Gom, and Leo on the street and now they are a family.

Thinking about her cats used to live in the harsh world, meeting up with the harsh wind and rain, she wrote this book, <The Bread Ghost>. She hopes that warmth is with them. She also wrote other books including <A Hermit Crap with Fragile Heart> which was published from Woongjin Junior.
