“Mummy was born. With me.”

A Funny, hilarious, and touching picture book that presents how a day of a woman who just became a mother is going, which was observed by her new born baby.

From the point of view of a baby, Mummy just drops asleep regardless of time and space, prefers to do everything with me even a very private matter like pooping, runs faster than a cheetah towards me whenever I cry even at night, receives many delivery boxes every day, likes to hide-and-seek (sometimes to be on mobile or to cry under the blanket), and turns into a different person when meeting her mum, I mean my grandmother.

Readers can find how much Mother is struggling to manage her changed life with her new companion, Baby, and feel sympathy for some reason.

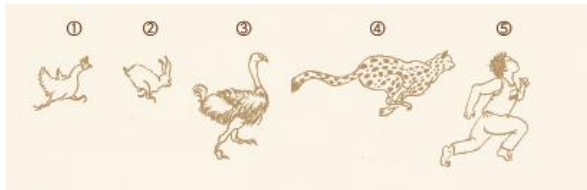

Author Biography

Jungmin Kwon worked as a broadcasting writer over 10 years, and converted her wat to a picture book author/illustrator.
