

The Legend of King Watermelon

PUBLICATION DATE May 2023

FORMAT Hardback

EXTENT 72 pages

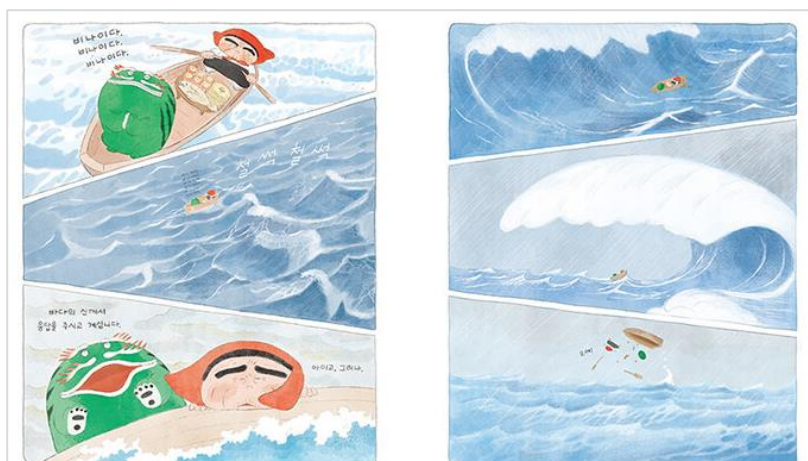

CATEGORY Picture book

SIZE 225*270mm

RIGHTS World available – Some countries have options of the author/illustrator.

Gee-eun Lee's new gripping story with more vivid and delightful characters!

On the way back home, the old lady in red hood bumped into a strange creature rolling on the street - he said he is the King Watermelon used to be a dragon flying in the sky, but a two heads beast took away his wings. He was barely alive, and was running off from them. With his desperate request, the old lady helps him make her best endeavors as she can in a variety of ways, but would it be successful?

Author Biography

Gee-eun Lee studied design and illustration in Korean and in the UK. She won a prize for 'Young Designer Illustration' at Korea Design Award, 2002. She wrote and illustrated 'Paper Dad', 'Granny Mom', 'Red Berries' and Illustrated other picture books. Her picture book, Iparapa Yamooyamoo (published at Sakyejul Publishing), won 2021 Bologna Ragazzi Award in the Comics – Early Readers category.

Her previous books in this series:

- The Legend of Friends (June 2021)
- The Story How the Shaved Ice Dessert was Born (June 2019)

