A picture book that helps children learn to share your joys and pleasures.

Just after coming out of hibernation, Chipmunk fell into a misunderstanding with Squirrel. While Chipmunk wondered what he could do to apologise for his misunderstanding, he hit upon a good idea – making delicious magnolia dumplings and sharing together with a full apology. Like dumplings wrapped around various filling, this misunderstanding between Chipmunk and Squirrel can be solved and they can hang out together in harmony?

Readers will cherish this beautiful illustration and the message of friendship and acceptance.
